Mr. Jonathan K. Parshall, the sole living male representative of this family, writing of his father, says: "My earliest recollection is that my father moved from the State of New York to Western Pennsylvania, and from there to Lockbourne, O., where my mother died. We children were placed in different families. In time my father married again, but the family was never re-united. * * * I remember two of my father's brothers, William, who moved with us, with his family, from Pennsylvania to Lockbourne, which place he left soon after. Then there was Uncle Reuben, whom I only knew by name, and a sister, Hannah, who m. Dennis Larkin, lived in Pennsylvania, and brought up a large family of children, who, in time, came to Indiana and Illinois." I have never been able to gain the slightest clue to the paternity of John Hickey Parshall, nor have I found in any family a "John" unaccounted for, who could by any possibility be the one in question.

In reference to this family, Mr. Robert Price, of Zanesville, O., President of the Muskingum County Pioneer and Historical Society, himself a genealogist and antiquarian of no mean pretensions, wrote me as follows: "My wife (Caroline³ Parshall) says her father (David²) had a brother, who, she thinks, lived near Uniontown, Fayette Co., Pa. His name was Elias, and her father visited 'Uncle Elias' when she was a girl. * * *

* Fam. Recs. and pers. know., 1296.

John³ says his father (David²) had a brother John, who was a physician in Cincinnati, O., and another brother, William, a lawyer, residence unknown." This would seem to connect the family with the descendants of Elias⁵ of Fayette Co., Pa., but I have very complete records of that family and none is unaccounted for; moreover, all the members of that line to whom I have written on the subject disclaim all knowledge of this Zanesville family.

PETER CROSS² [1309] (James^{1a}) b. Sacketts Harbor,
 N. Y., 30 Dec., 1812; d. Penn Yan, Yates Co., N. Y., 17 Sept., 1885; m. Julia Loverna Hill.

a. James Parshall, the father of Peter, was twice married, and had sixteen children. By one wife he had Stephen, Peter Cross and Elizabeth; by the other William and Sarah. The names of the others are not known. It seems strange that so large a family could leave so little trace of its existence. I have been able to discover only Peter, Cross and William, though relatives of James are said to have lived in Sharpsburg and Pittsburg, Pa., a number of years ago.
